

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP TEAM
VIRTUAL MEETING
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2020
9:00 A.M.

Those in attendance: Deborah Bordelon, Craig Burgess, Ed Helton, Rocky Kettering, Nancy Marino, President Chris Markwood, and Gina Sheeks.

Guests: Ted Laskaris, David Mitchell, Chip Reese and Michael Tullier

President Markwood:

Good telephone call with the Chancellor yesterday:

- Mental Health Program funding will be a System Wide approach.
- Preparation for a briefing for upcoming legislative session to be completed early November. Need to highlight student events and engagements. Highlight faculty members and their innovative approaches during this semester. Dr. Bordelon will get highlight information regarding faculty and Gina will get information from the Student affairs. Please send to Dr. Markwood and cc Ed and Michael. Need meetings with local delegation before Thanksgiving if possible.

Rocky Kettering: Letter of thanks from donors.

Deborah Bordelon:

Art Mural MOU with City Update – CSU presentation to City Council is scheduled for November 10. Between now and November 10, Hannah Israel and Chris Whittey will meet with City Council members. Sent draft of presentation to ELT for feedback.

The MOU and information packet will provide specific information regarding the term “traffic control. Presentation will not be sent to Mayor or City Council until the traffic control information is clarified.

Ted Laskaris – updates

Website Content maintenance process proposal – Michael, Neal and Valerie are finishing work required by OCR. Currently working with College of Business on the template for their website. Ted will check with Neal to see if he met with Academic Chairs regarding the template for the websites. Ted will confirm and report back to ELT.

Ted will continue to finalize plans for web Content Management.

Cybersecurity Training – 77% of the faculty and staff have completed their Cybersecurity training. Deadline is October 31, 2020.

Gina Sheeks:

Aramark Holiday Schedule: - David Mitchell

David Mitchell presented information regarding Aramark and the function of Pods and the main cafeteria. He will consult with Jeff Davis, Gina Sheeks, and Aramark and bring a recommendation to ELT on Tuesday, Nov. 3, regarding food for students who will be in the dorms through Dec. 5, finals, and the current operation of the Pods in Schuster and Stanley Halls.

Once the plan is approved by ELT and the President, Michael will send out communication.

Student Protest March, Nov. 7 – No updates.

Craig Burgess:

Who applies for the permits with the city of Columbus for CSU events? Craig will begin work on a draft of a policy and bring back to ELT for approval.

Ed Helton:

Chip Reese – No damage from severe weather.

COVID – 19 no real changes in numbers since report from Tuesday, 10/27/2020

Mayor's Call yesterday – hospitals reporting a flattening of new patients,

Grand Jurys and in person trials will resume at the Government Center in the new year.

December 10 – Return to Work at CSU for employees – Chip presented guidelines from the CSU RTC Workplace Health & Safety Group:

- Employees may have a single visitor in their office for a face to face meeting, as long as social distancing (6-feet) and mask protocols are observed.
- Two (2) to four (4) individuals may meet in a conference room, as long as social distancing (6-feet) and mask protocols are observed.
- Meetings larger than four (4) persons must be moved to an appropriate classroom/auditorium setting while observing all social distancing (6-feet) and mask protocols.
- The host of any meeting should allow any or all individuals to attend remotely.
- Breakrooms are limited to one - two (1 - 2) individuals while observing all social distancing (6-feet) and mask protocols.
- Mask reminder – Reusable masks should be washed after each use. If a face shield is worn, it should be worn in conjunction with a face mask.
- Employees are encouraged to do a self-temperature check each day upon arrival to work.

Chip will send this information to ELT today. ELT members will review the guidelines and approve/amend by email. Guidelines will be sent to President Markwood for his approval.

There being no other business to discuss, meeting was adjourned at 10:11 a.m.

Respectfully submitted by,

Nancy Marino